Hence, I am satisfied that there is no unjust enrichment in the present case.

(14) Also, as per Customs Circular No-18/2010 dated 8.7.2010 Refund of 4% Additional Duty of Customs (4% CVD) in pursuance of Notification No.102/2007-Customs dated 14.9.2007 – Special Drive for clearance of pending 4% SAD refund claims - reg. in para 6 clear instructed that “Some field formations have also raised certain doubts whether the audited Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account have to be examined in respect of the current financial year for scrutiny of unjust enrichment aspect. It is stated that a large number of refund claims relating to the current year were held up for want of such verification. In this regard, the issue has been examined by the Board and it has been decided that the field formations shall accept a certificate from Chartered Accountant for the purpose of satisfying the condition that the burden of 4% CVD has not been passed on by the importer to any other person. Further, the importer shall also make a self-declaration along with the refund claim to the effect that he has not passed on the incidence of 4% CVD to any other person. Hence, there is no need for insisting on production of audited Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account in these cases. It may also be noted that recently the Board has also notified the list of documents required to be filed by the applicant along with the refund claim (Annexure-II) which is also displayed in the departmental website. Hence, other than these aforesaid documents, no other document would be required in the normal course of granting 4% CVD refund”.

(15) The Board has issued Circular No. 06/2008 dated 28.04.2018, wherein certain procedures are to be adopted for claiming the refund of 4% SCVD. This requires to be examined in the present case. I find that the importer has filed the refund claim within the time limit of one year as laid down in the circular. Further the condition of filing a single claim against a particular Bill of entry has also been fulfilled by the importer. Apart from the above, I find that the claimant has submitted proof that the burden of duty has not been passed on to any buyer which takes care of the unjust enrichment issue. Further, as required, the Chartered Accountant has also certified that the payment of the VAT/ST on imported goods has been co-related with the sale invoices. In view of this, the claim appears to be correct.
